"We're all in this together," chant the duplicitous politicians, meaning the Covid-19 pandemic. The official language around the crisis is consistently hypocritical and disingenuous; "trite and misleading" is how the BBC described the UK government's slimy rhetoric. World-wide the script is much the same "we're at war". we're fighting an invisible enemy and we will prevail ...

The poor can be blameless (Proverbs 28:6) and wise (Ecclesiastes 9:15). But other scriptures verses warn us that drunkenness, gluttony, and laziness can cause poverty (Proverbs 23:21). A telling passage that sorts out the difference between different types of poor people is 1 Timothy 6:9-10, which says, But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction.
