~~This thriller is as good as anything by Hilary Mantel~~---

The Silent Boy is the first book I have read of Andrew Taylor's and I every much doubt I will read another. I was so disappointed with the content and the less than informative content too. The plot was very thready and there really is no continuity to the flow of the novel.

~~Amazon.com: Customer reviews: The Silent Boy~~

The Silent Boy- excellent but not perfect This is a fantastic Andrew Taylor story that drags you in and keeps you imprisoned until the last, final shocking twists. The narration is better than some I've heard but I was annoyed at the repeated mis-pronunciation of "gable" as "gabble", "purlin" as "purelin" and "gavel" as "gavelle", to name but a few.

I know I am late to the party (again) - Andrew Taylor has been writing award-winning historical mysteries for decades - but I've only just discovered his incredible novels! I really enjoyed 'The Scent of Death' and have happily ignored everything else on my TBR pile to go straight into the sequel, 'The Silent Boy'.
