For now, at The Time Travelers Guide , we will be focusing on daily life in the 1860's and the Civil War Era. It seems like the best place to start, since it is something we more actively research and participate in at the moment. In the future, though, we hope to expand into other periods, like the 1940's and, maybe even Regency , and Rev War.

Obviously, A Time Traveller's Guide to Medieval England was a title calculated to gain my attention. The premise: a different take on presenting an overview of a period of time, using the format of a travel guide - something of a Fodor's England 1320 that might be found in the TARDIS. Exploring the experience of all the senses, this should be a gem of a resource to the writer of historical fiction or fantasy.
